IVORY SOAP IT FLOATS

You have noticed the disagreeable odor of clothes just from the wash. That's the soap. Cheap soaps do not rinse out. Ivory Soap rinses readily, leaving the clothes sweet, clean and white.

Chelsea Home News.

HALE K. DARLING, Local Editor.

Miss Flora Corliss is at home. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Burnham visited at Randolph last week. F. E. Bixby and wife of South Royalton were in town on Sunday. Mrs. James Sanford has just finished a quilt containing 2,535 pieces. There was another husking party at Herbert Kingsbury's, Thursday. Waterson Relief Corps was inspected by Mrs. Leland of Montpelier, Friday night. Elmer Bradbury of Bethel was in town on Sunday, visiting his mother, Mrs. E. F. Peters. Mrs. C. S. Emery, who has been at Montpelier for some time, returned home last week.

A. C. Hatch of Norwich, Conn., was in town Sunday, attending the funeral of his brother, M. A. Hatch. A. I. Dexter raised a pumpkin on his place this year that weighed 11-1/2 lbs. and is 5-1/2 feet in circumference.

Mrs. Robert Bohanan of Claremont, N. H., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Ann Spear, has returned home. Erastus Bagbee, aged 74, and Pauline Jones, aged 55, were married at Vershire last Thursday by Rev. C. W. Jackson.

George F. D. French has improved the appearance of his house by building a new gable end upon it and reshingling it. The place in Washington village belonging to the Hersey estate was bid off by Charles Taplin at $450 at Saturday's auction.

W. B. Thurber of Burlington, manager of the New England Telephone Co., was in town Sunday in the interests of that company.

Ernest Hall, son of Custis M. Hall, died last week of typhoid fever, aged 22. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Sunday.

Camp No. 28, Sons of Veterans, will be inspected by Assistant Inspector W. W. Rogers of South Royalton, Monday evening, Nov. 4th. A full attendance is particularly desired.

Amos Chamberlain of Newbury, aged 51, was committed to jail last week by Constable John R. Weed, bound over to the grand jury on the charge of larceny. He says he is not guilty.

The best of news comes from Lyle Tracy, who is receiving treatment at the Osteopathic Infirmary at Kirksville, Mo., where she has already much improved with the prospect of entire recovery.

The pupils at the academy "spelled down" last Friday. In the upper room, the successful competitor was Della Cloyes, with Richard Bacon second. In the lower room, Fred Parkhurst came out ahead.

Rev. B. B. Sherman has returned from his vacation and occupied his pulpit Sunday, preaching an able and interesting sermon designed for the more aged of our people, of whom a good number were in attendance.

With reference to the communication regarding the price paid the patrons of the Chelsea creamery for September, Treasurer W. P. Townsend states that it should be borne in mind that the price paid depends upon the test.

The funeral services of Marcus A. Hatch, who died at Brookton, Mass., last week, were held at the residence of J. A. R. Corwin, Sunday, Rev. B. B. Sherman officiating. Mr. Hatch was a native of Chelsea and had been engaged in business at Brookton for several years. He was a brother of Mrs. J. A. R. Corwin and Miss L. C. Hatch of this place. His age was 51.

The assignment of judges for the coming year has been made, and, as stated last week, Judge Tyler will hold the coming December term of county court. Judge Leland Munson of Manchester will preside at the June term.

The auction at the Joel Hersey place last Saturday brought out the biggest crowd seen here for a long time. The farm was bid off by E. E. Barnes for $2,450. The stock and other personal property sold well. C. N. Barber of Barre was auctioneer.

The case of Emma F. Reynolds vs. Kimball Chynoweth, which was argued at the supreme court week before last, has been decided. The judgment of the county court for the plaintiff is affirmed. The court will meet at Montpelier, Nov. 28th, to announce the decisions.

The "North Star" equipment suffered a partial smash-up last week. Mr. Corliss left his horses standing in front of the hotel while he stepped inside for a moment and the animals started for home. The top of the stage wagon came in contact with the corner of a shed, somewhat demolishing the former.

About $24 was realized from the excellent musical entertainment given for the benefit of the academy the latter part of the summer. Of this sum, $20 have been expended in the purchase of relief maps of North America and Europe, appliances for teaching arithmetic, geometry and drawing and other articles of a similar nature.

As announced in last week's issue, S. M. Keyes died Oct. 23d. His age was 68. Mr. Keyes lived for many years on a farm on the West Hill, but for the past few years has resided in the village. He was universally respected as a good citizen and had held several town offices. He leaves two sons, J. A. and Dr. C. R. Keyes of Duluth, both of whom were present at the funeral, which was held at the house Saturday, Rev. Mr. Forrest officiating.

Corinth.

Miss Carolyn Fellows is the nurse at Sydney Ward's. The parsonage at the Corner is soon to be newly shingled.

Mrs. C. L. Spear of West Corinth is sick with a gripe. A son was born last Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Ward.

George Orlitt has accepted a position on the electric street cars in Burlington. J. F. Rollins left last Monday for Rhode Island, where he is employed in an asylum.

Cyrus Smith and son moved last week from Hanover, N. H., to Washington Flat.

Mrs. George Welton is caring for her daughter, Mrs. Rodney Merrill, who is quite ill. J. F. Rollins was in Chelsea last Friday and stayed overnight with his nephew on West Hill.

Mrs. J. F. Rollins went on the excursion to Boston this week and will visit two brothers in Lynn.

Mrs. William Burgin has not been so well this week. Dr. Corwin of Chelsea is her attending physician.

The church at the Corner will be supplied next Sunday, by Rev. E. T. Hutchins, who will be at his charge in Groton to assist in the revival meetings now in progress there.

Vershire.

Hial Cotton reports 60 potatoes weighing 71 lbs. A six-rowed ear of corn has been produced by John Dow.

Mrs. C. W. Jackson and children went to Ludlow last week Tuesday. Rev. W. F. Harding had an auction this week but is not to move out of town.

It is reported that the mines have been sold to a New York party and will soon be in running order.

W. A. Mattoon was badly injured last week Wednesday when his coil ran away, dragging him a distance. Bert Wiggins, who cut his kneepan quite badly with an axe week before last, is now able to be out again.

After a long sickness, Mrs. Maria Mattoon died last week Wednesday at the home of her son, W. A. Mattoon.

Hugh Clark is taking his vacation while F. D. Richardson is in Boston, and Herman Bugbee is working in Clark's place.

Those who planned to take in the excursion this week Wednesday are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Titton, F. D. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Uloagh, Orison Maltby, Mrs. Henry Barnstow and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Robinson.

HOW MEN BECOME MILLIONAIRES.

They bought Wheat last March at 80 cents per bushel and sold it in June at $1.25 cents. They bought Cotton at 12-1/2 cts. per lb. last February and are selling it to-day (September 27th) at 13-1/2 cts., realizing profits of $1700 on each 100 bales and upon an investment of $250. I advertised in this space to buy both wheat and cotton at these low prices. I NOW SAY BUY WHEAT FROM $2 TO $5 PER BUSHEL PROFIT. The average price of Pork is $10 per bbl. 10 years past. Write for particulars. All business transacted over private wires with old, responsible, reliable, regular Houses.
